

We gather today to celebrate the lives of Sienna and Shane,
To rejoice in their memories and let free from the pain.
With personalities and smiles bright like the sun,
They changed the lives of those they encountered one by one.
Although tragically these children too soon have gone,
With this garden we hope to help their memories live on.
We're here to bring light to those left to mourn,
A garden built for their memories to be reborn.
We hope as people sit on this bench for some shade,
They can reflect on the impact these two children have made.
We planted this garden to last many years,
As a place we can visit that sits among their peers.
We're here today not to be sad,
But to be happy for the memories that were had.
Sienna and Shane this garden is for you,
There's a piece of you with all of us in everything we do.
