

Dedication from Sienna's Teachers – Fran Davis and Patti Critelli

I remember...

The first day we met. You were quiet and a little shy, not quite sure about this new adventure.

I remember...

When you blossomed into a true preschooler, confident and curious, eager to explore.

I remember...

Bright sparkling brown eyes and the biggest smile that could make the grayest day brighter.

I remember...

Two ponytails bouncing happily as you walked down the hallway anticipating the next exciting moment.

I remember...

How much you loved to look in the mirror, laughing and dancing, your joy shared by all who watched.

I remember...

You loved playing with your baby doll, practicing to be a loving big sister to Skye.

I remember...

How you loved to learn, sitting tall and proud in your little chair.

We remember you...

Sienna, We carry you in our hearts.
